**Please note: Professional Handlers may only show dogs in any sweepstakes class that are owned or co-owned by them.

AKC Policy is specific in stating that individuals judging sweepstakes or futurity classes are ineligible to exhibit on the day that they judge. This can be found on page 3 of the Rules, Policies and Guidelines for Conformation Dog Show Judges.

Exhibiting and Handling (P) Conformation Judges and household members (as defined in Chapter 11, Section 13 of the Rules Applying to Dog Shows) may not exhibit any breed and judge on the day of, three days before and the three days after an assignment within 200 miles of the assignment.

Effective January 1, 2009 Sweepstakes and Futurity Judges may not exhibit on the day(s) they judge. Sweepstakes/Futurity judges will continue to be allowed to exhibit the day before and the day after they judge. A multi-day specialty is considered one event, and the restriction will apply for the duration of the event.

Please be advised "exhibiting" applies to the individual personally handling any dogs AND any dogs owned or co-owned by the individual, regardless of who handles them. In addition, judging policies affecting exhibitor eligibility apply to all members of the same household. As a result, the spouse would be ineligible to exhibit on the day he would judge sweepstakes classes.

If an individual has a dog that you bred but you are not the co-owner, that dog may be exhibited in the regular breed classes only. That dog would be ineligible to be entered to you.
